CYNTHIA L. PAGAN

Cynthia L. Pagon.

Well kid, it's finally all done with, over, and through! You have made the six yrs. that I have known you really exciting, and fun. I know you will be going away to college, but that's no excuse not to write, call, or even have me visit you. Cindy, don't ever go away and not keep in touch, because that will be one friendship to special to loose.

You're great kid, and I love you! We always have a fantastic time together, and that's a sure sign of a very special friendship. Love,
Muri

Cynthia?
Good wishes - Can't be as witty as some of these young "hucks".

Gomer.
"You've got the look we want to get rid of" (Tom + Dan)

Cindy you're a sweet girl who likes to raise hell. Don't change, (well maybe a little) (only kidding)

TAKE CARE of yourself at college

Sniff Sniff

Cindy
For a senior
You are O.K.
Thanks for all the good times
in the trench
O/F to the future
Good luck

Monday,
You are one excellent friend - I don't care what anyone says. 😊 We've had some really spectacular times since Europe but this year really takes the cake! Wilton is a super place to be and your mom is sweet.
I plan on seeing you alot this summer and Wilton is the place to be. (I never thought I'd find myself say that one!) (said that twice) We've had loads of times that I can still look back on and laugh for hours straight.
Paris and Munich to start - 3:00 a.m. Cindy says she'll wait up - and mom says "time to go to bed."
Jeff's party with Eric on the floor in his jumps - that was great up to the lake with Vicki - Capri Pizza with Mike - how embarassing - Annie & Bob's house - aren't my cousins super such modesty! Godspell - what a play Jason as my escort! 😊 Then there's St. Mary's Excellent play - when can we leave? Please?
beg, beg, beg - O.K. I'm ready whenever you are.
I realize Mooreen will see this I hope she also realized I don't hate her but I still feel hostile because I was really hurt and still can't blame Jeff. Cindy I love you alot you are such a terrific person you contain such excellent qualities - fun, wildness! Gotta see you as much as possible this summer or I'll cry!!!
How about a ride in your car I'm having a fit! Debbie Browns Bug! Joseph and his summer just thing in the morning - we're still asleep!! Thanks for picking me up in Ballston - sorry about your science plate.
Good ole Choir Banquets. Mrs. Shevy - Mother here!!!
Now about sitting on the bus through the town!
Sitting out all you can about me and me you.
What's I'll take him up to his room - Donna - holding hands - god a kid Cindy constantly getting thrown out of the library. Will have to relive alot of memories this summer

Face, Heavens! what a school! what a melon! will just hang to get shneebled and flip out. Good with always

Cindy
I hope you have a fun summer from Sandra

There'll be no time enough though I'm afraid.
Well I'm glad Marcia liked one of my friends you!
I don't see how anyone could dislike such a lovely class to get nina going & shoot the bull all period. Well kid these days are going by all too soon and I don't like it at all. Keep praying for good grades- History!

 Don't you like this picture of Thomas?
 Great well put him to good use up as well. Smitty gone the doctor
 I love it! Pure disgust that's all he is.
 so different from one minute to the next!
 your for me live had enough. You'd come to Europe next year or I may my temper unless of course you a real legitimate excuse. You're happy get that $50 for your pink and run- I'll probably be seeing you next year at Rochester its great for business I love it!
 can call whenever I'll be coming to you in February. I promise you are greatest friend true to all power some great secrets and so many memories- I loved it. What a friend for but to share great memories and we have that for sure! Choir sucks- Mr. Sherry erect-correct. I love it- Choir when don't ever forget it!
 I guess there isn't much else to say you know the most important part and that is that I care very much.

DEDICATION

"In the unremitting dailiness of family life, insight can be blunted, virtues taken for granted and minor irritations magnified into frustrations so that people forget to give honor where it is due." (M. Cousins)

Therefore, we the graduates of South High dedicate our 1981 to our parents, who have been understanding, sacrificing, loyal, loving and most of all concerned.

In our own special way, we HONOR and THANK you.

IN RECOGNITION . . . LARRY SMITH

This recognition is for the man, father figure, and coach — Larry Smith, who through his perseverance and dedication has become a model for all who know him to emulate.

Thank you for "reaching out" to us, Coach Smith.

JUNE PHINNEY

NG!
ELLO!

JUNE: "Hey Kate, can you believe we're seniors and finally going to graduate?"

KATE: "I know it . . . this year has gone by so fast. Steve remember our freshman year?"

STEVE: "Yeah, I remember the formal . . . nobody even danced."

JUNE: "A except for the girls . . . we got up and danced with each other. That looked so stupid."

KATE: "That certainly was an experience."

STEVE: "What a year. We loved to boss around the underclassmen."

JUNE: "Yeah, but our sophomore year brought some big ups and downs."

ALL: "I know. We were at the bottom of the ladder and everyone picked on us."

STEVE: "That was to be expected . . . guess. The only good thing was that we were finally out of the junior high."

JUNE: "I remember everybody joined all the clubs . . . then never showed up for half of them."

ALL: "But I think our junior year was the best of all. Our class became much closer and participated in a lot of activities."

STEVE: "Remember the Prom . . . what a night. It was fun but I'm glad it's over."

ALL: "After all that . . . I'm glad we're seniors and our high school days are almost completed."

JUNE: "Senior year was a lot of fun . . . all the teams finished first in the Sports Center . . . that sure is a great note to go out on . . . I'm going to miss everybody . . . KEEP IN TOUCH."

Phone Message to Graduates:

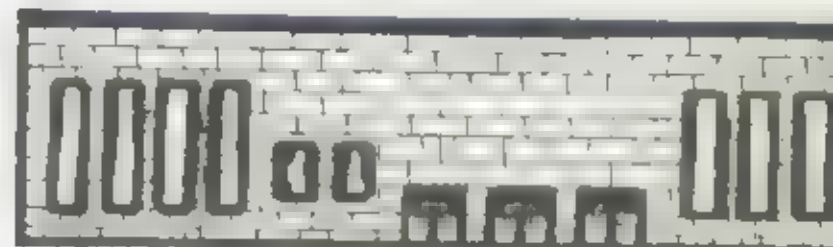

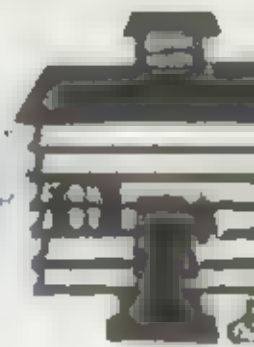

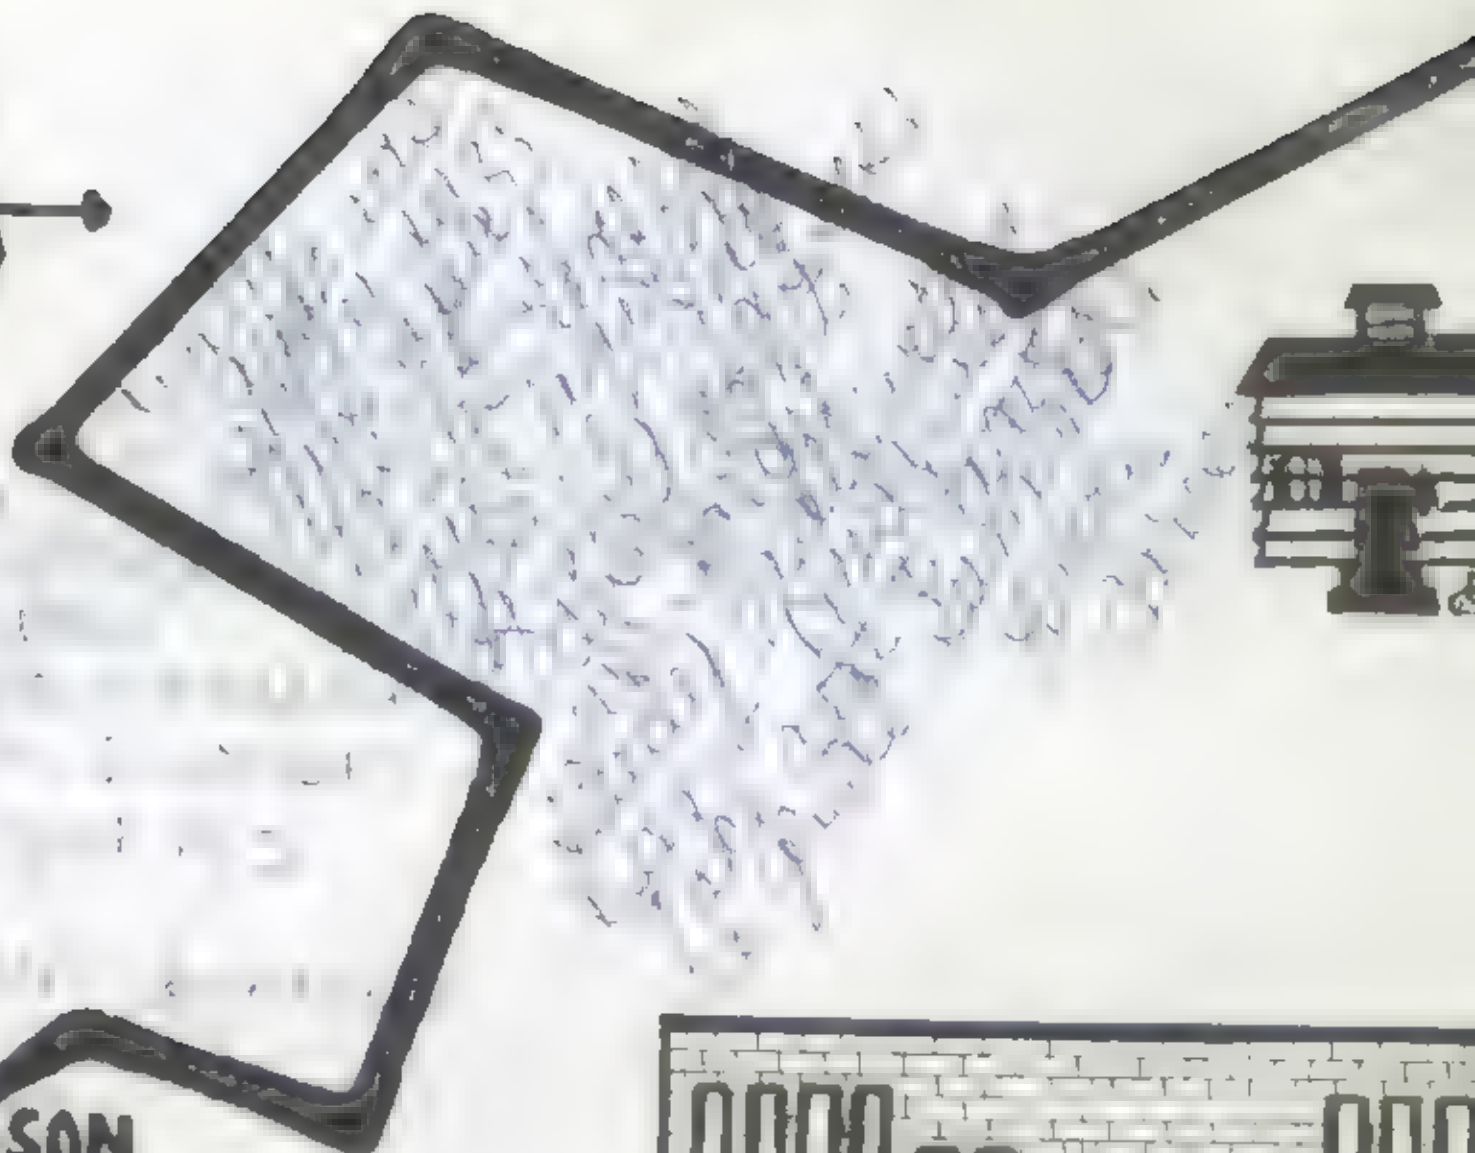

We, the Editors of the Arrowhead Yearbook, have chosen "REACH OUT AND TOUCH" as our theme since we regard communication as the key to our past and our future. Although our views have differed at times with faculty, administrators, parents, friends and foes, we feel as a class, we have always been receptive to an open dialogue. Over the years, our class has reached and maintained a mutual understanding and respect for individual groups. Furthermore, we all have interacted together in various activities and sports. During the past four years our friendships toward each other have expanded and enabled us to "Reach Out and Touch" someone for the rest of our lives.

In the future, we wish this book to represent and remind all of our willingness to communicate, to reach out, and to touch.

Best Wishes

Kate Kusnierz

LITTLE LINES FOR IMPORTANT TIMES

Is it soup yet?

Clearing the path brush

A Star is Born!

Name

Where's your eye

UNLISTED NUMBERS . . .

This may be a will but I'm not dead yet!

You ain't gettin' nottin' from me

And you thought I wouldn't remember

I, Mrs. Grey, leave Jon Palmer these "Thee's", to Kern Kieman, I leave the stamina to keep making up make-ups, and to Carolyn Butler her admiration for such hard work
I, Mr. Hoover, leave Rob Pratt a good blood test, to Tom Kelly a life-time supply of moguls, and to Susan Lemery a course in "Modern Fascinations in Physics."
I, Frau Fish, bequeath the following To Debbie Brown - a job translating for a German hockey team; to Steve Washburn - Franz Beckenbauer's position on the Cosmos, and to all German students - the pleasure of a visit to the Lorelei
I, Mr. Yule, bequeath the following. Tom Kelly - the "College Tour Guide for Prospective Dentists"; to Joanna Burgess a road map of West Virginia, and to Rob Fitzgerald - my "Coaching Guide to Winning Hockey."

I, Robert Porter, bequeath the following. Always speaks when met in the hall, award to Cathy Sassone. Attitude never changes, award to Nick DiNicola, and Good Sense (Humor) award to Howard Weller.

I, David Robinson, bequeath the following. To Kip, dare one case of Blazer or to Mike Taylor, one completed table top, and to Paul Breton - the oldest truck in town.

I, Mrs. Napolitano, bequeath the following. To Jim Davis, Adirondack Red Wing stickers for his suitcase to use when he goes to Europe again, and to Jonathan Palmer - our family tree.

I, Frank Grassia, bequeath the following. To Cathy Sassone a big heart and a Christmas candle, to Nicky DiNicola an M.A.F.A. membership and a pizza, and to Mike Dzing a parking lot full of shopping carts and driving lessons. To the class of '81 - best of luck.

I, Coretta A. Quigley, bequeath the following. Women's Liberation to Matt Vaughn, a ticket to Mad Beth to Nick DiNicola, and a commendation to Cathy Sassone for her untiring good humor.

I, Cameron Tessier, bequeath to all the seniors my very best wishes for success in your chosen pursuits. When confronted with adversity, I hope you will face it courageously. To those seniors whom I know. You have been an outstanding group. I look forward to hearing of your noteworthy achievements from many of you. Good luck!

I, Mary Ann Flynn, bequeath the following. Pat's Walsh, one extra large overdue library notice, and to Bill Blake, a copy of the Post Star for his personal use.

I, Donna Carbone, bequeath the following. a large stack of magazine cards to George Gedney, a perfect 101 game at Pine Lanes to Karen Sassone, and to Brian Linefoll, extra time to get his howling ball to the alley on time.

I, Art Merrill, bequeath the following. to Joanna Burgess, a future of dramatic roles as a "devastating" angel, to Vickie Crossman and family, Numerous vacant areas on the nation's map for creative finger painting, and to Bill Bouton, Unlimited free lessons in the fine art of bossie milking.

I, Tom Gorman, leave to Vickie Crossman a megaphone so she can be heard in her Math classes, to Laurie Holcomb a pass to talk in my study hall, and to Ed Bar and Ted Bennett, boxing gloves so they can intelligently discuss their differences.

I, R. D. Driscoll, Mr. D, bequeath the following. To Nick DiNicola a computer program that will shrink his nose to Kev's Furry, my offer to work in her Nevada hotel, to Mary Bulbaas, a 1/4 piece of bubble gum per day forever.

I, Mrs. Grace, bequeath the following. for Eve Spellman - saddlebags.

I, Sharon Moritz, bequeath the following. an extra lunch per day to Jeff Miswell, 365 ice cream cones to Jim Davis, and one "you know what I mean though" to Nina Lani.

I, Evelyn Stewart, bequeath the following. To Rob Pratt - a razor to use before you come to school, to Bob Vishneowski - "My Bob" Vishneowski - a permanent back row seat - I'm tired of tripping over his feet, and to Rick Lance - one hour of my undivided attention.

I, Sue King, bequeath the following. to Tracy DeSignore, the courage and self motivation to pursue all interests and set high goals, to Lisa Choppa I leave a little black book to record all her dates at P.S.U.C.

We, Ms. McCarthy and Mrs. Butto, bequeath the following. to Tom Dorrier and Nick DiNicola an antler hat rack for their blue moose burnoose and an irrevocable admission pass to the library.

I, J. Springer, bequeath the following. to Tammy Lemery, Stacy Brooks, Kris Durbin, Daphne and Mrs. Kelly Livingston, Tammy Bennett, and Jean Drasey, leave the memories of that late September year. Remember, army on vandettas.

I, Claire Hunter, bequeath the following. to Connie Walsh, super secretary, one dozen red and blue pens, with the hope that she will use every one happily. To Jane Nichols - copies of all the books by F. Lee Bailey, to add to her collection of legal volumes, which should be used when she becomes the first woman justice on the U.S. Supreme Court. To Debbie Corne, an IBM memory typewriter to type over 200 words a minute and correct errors automatically. This is given in memory of all the good work she did in secretarial classes.

I, Barbara Abbott, being of unsound mind, do bequeath the following. To Laurie Holcomb, a seal always in Mr. Gorman's Mr. LeBlanc's and my study hall. To Johnie Frost, a booklet of humorous shorthand outlines to give you the giggles whenever you read it.

To Connie Walsh, 12 telephone message pads

To Dedra Dyer, 11 error-filled purchase orders

To Michelle Backus, 10 inventory cards written in invisible ink

To Liz Bacon, 9 ugly bank statements,

To Kelly Livingston, 8 over-due accounts

To Anne Chase, 7 payroll checks that bounce

To Emilia Leo, 6 "more" invoice forms

To Debbie Corne, 5 nasty phone calls

To Pam Sawin, 4 free day receipts soaked in coffee

To Lynn Maxam, 3 books of out-dated stamps

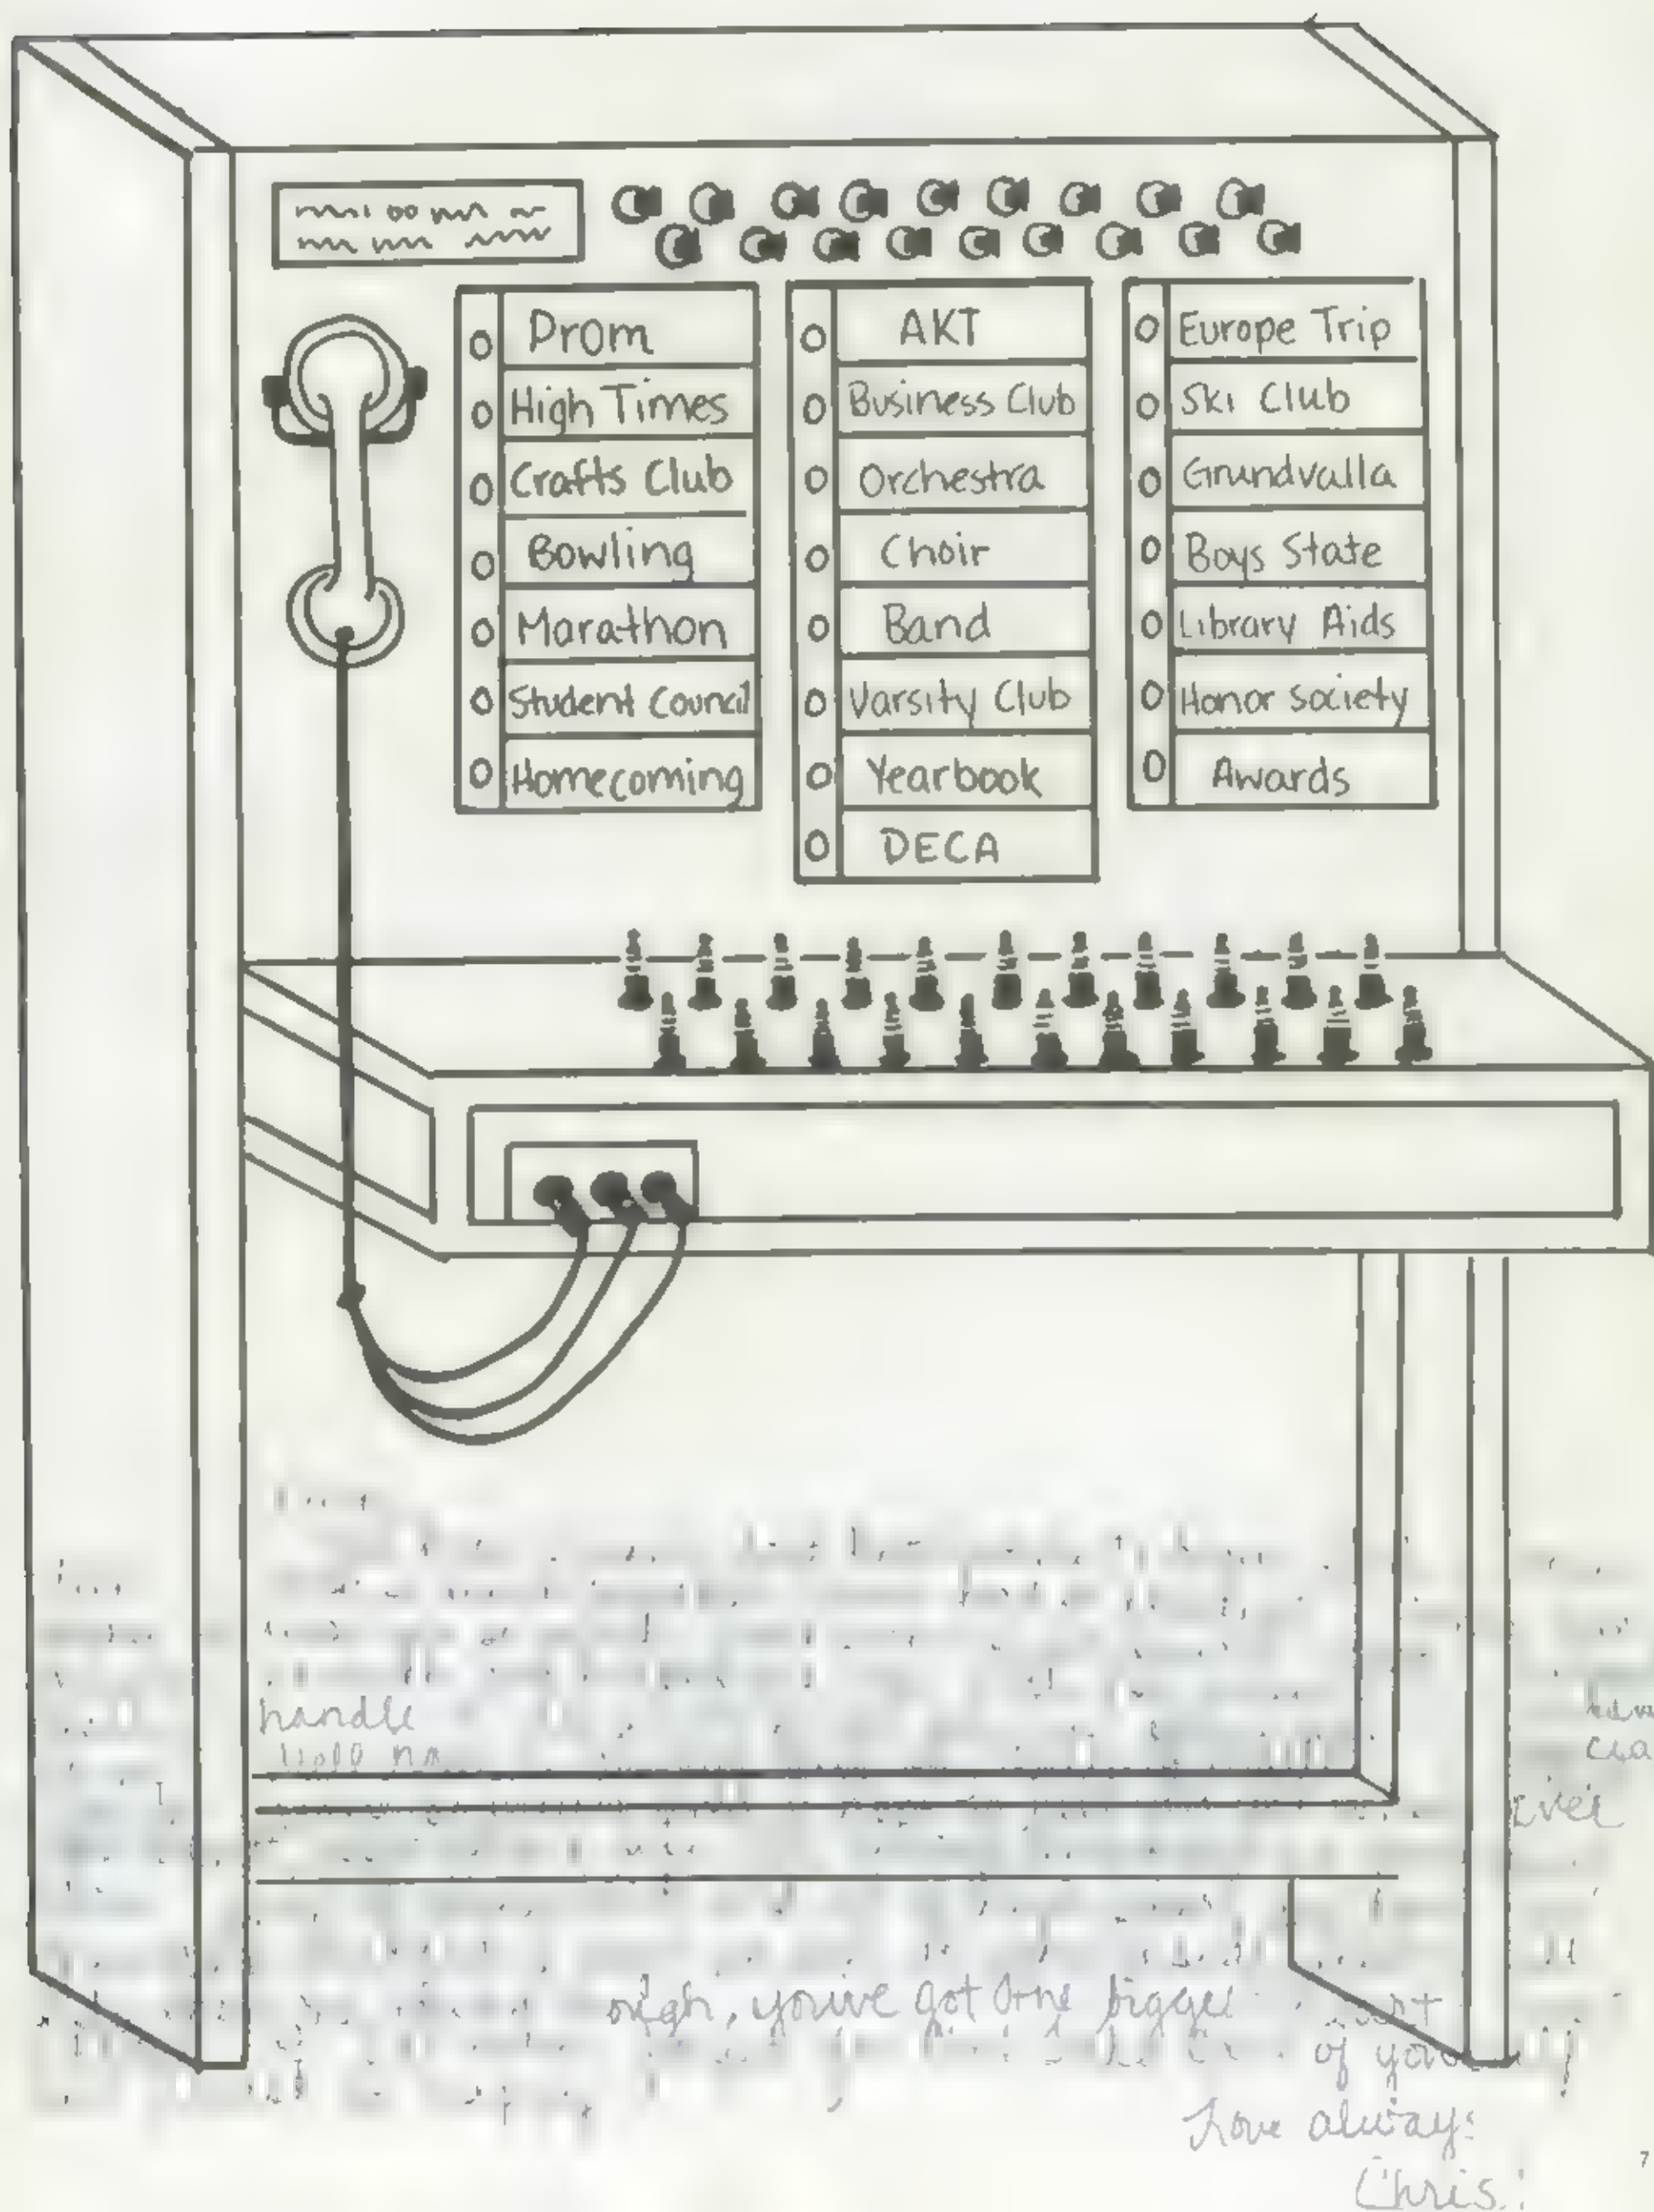

To Melanie Dow, 2 closing entries

To Tracey DeSignore, a letter with a carbon reversal

I, Lynne Boecher, leave Jeff Perry a job with the Wildlife Protection Commission. Fred Robillard a book of appropriate tasteful remarks and Tom Dorrier, a lifetime of positive encounters with the Dewey Decimal System.

Most of all, I, the "shrew" of the yearbook, leave the entire staff a lifetime of completed deadlines and sincere thanks and best wishes.

The Toga Troop

A sure cure for a backache!

Coollest Couples in town.

The "White Shadow"

Last year some 100 students were given a buzz through the Party Lines at South High's gym in order to raise enough money for a kidney dialysis machine. The students partied for 36 hours dancing the time away. Directed under Mr. Bill McCarthy, the dance was South High's most productive party-line to date. With the addition of the 50's party and Toga party, the students had fun letting their legs do the walking to ring up 6,500 dollars for the kidney machine.

Student Council Officers

This year's conference calls of the student council were held to decide on such activities as Homecoming Student Exchange programs, installation of the cafeteria sound waves system, and other 'school spirited' related hang-ups. The calls, sent out by advisor Mr. Fronhoffer, were operated by President Michele Bastian, Vice-President Paula Williams, Treasurer Kathy Bouton, and Secretary MaryLou Hazleton.

RETURN CALLS

Does anybody recall what we're doing?

Many South High alumni paid return calls to "The Home of the Bulldogs" during the Homecoming festivities of 1981. Lined with hall decorating, pep rally, soccer and football game, bonfire, dance, powder puff and spirit, the homecoming was a big success.

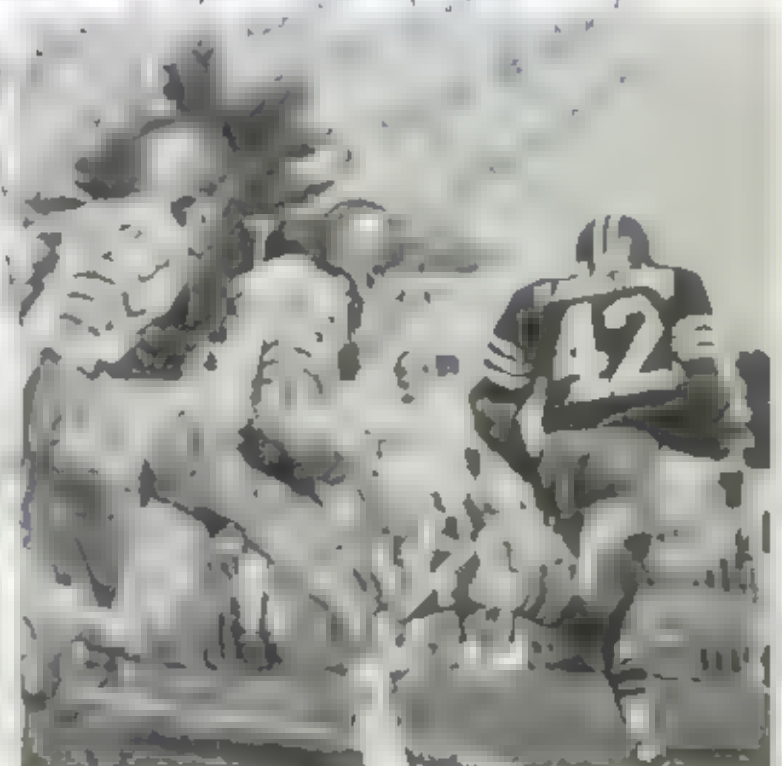

"Hang it up Jennifer!"

What's shot?

Jane dials out another six points.

"Come on - Reach out and touch me"

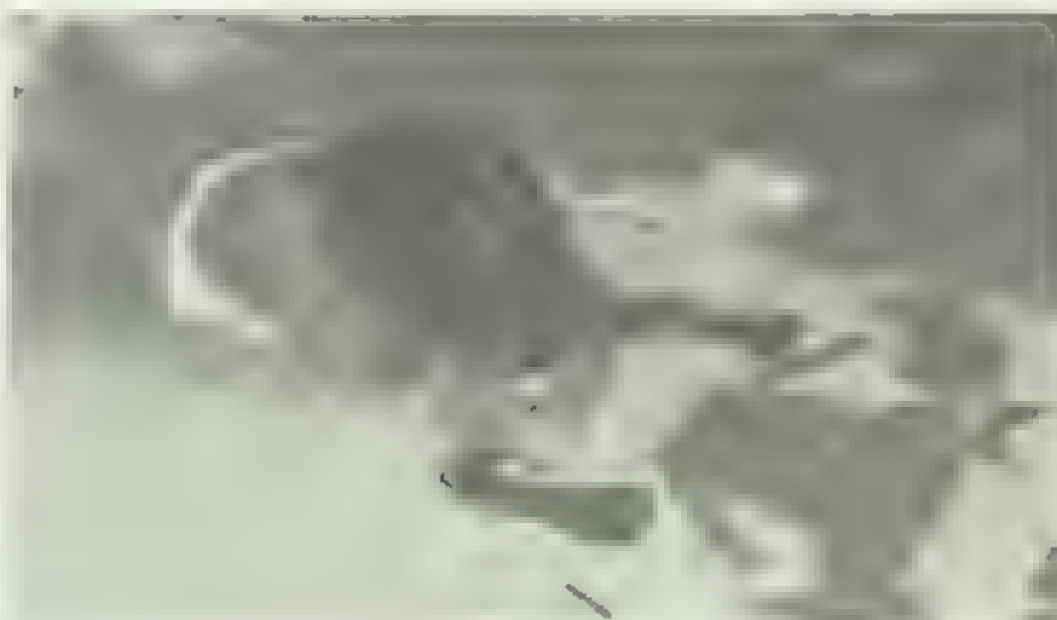

Somebody call a doctor!

The Bulldogs are Cool Cats!

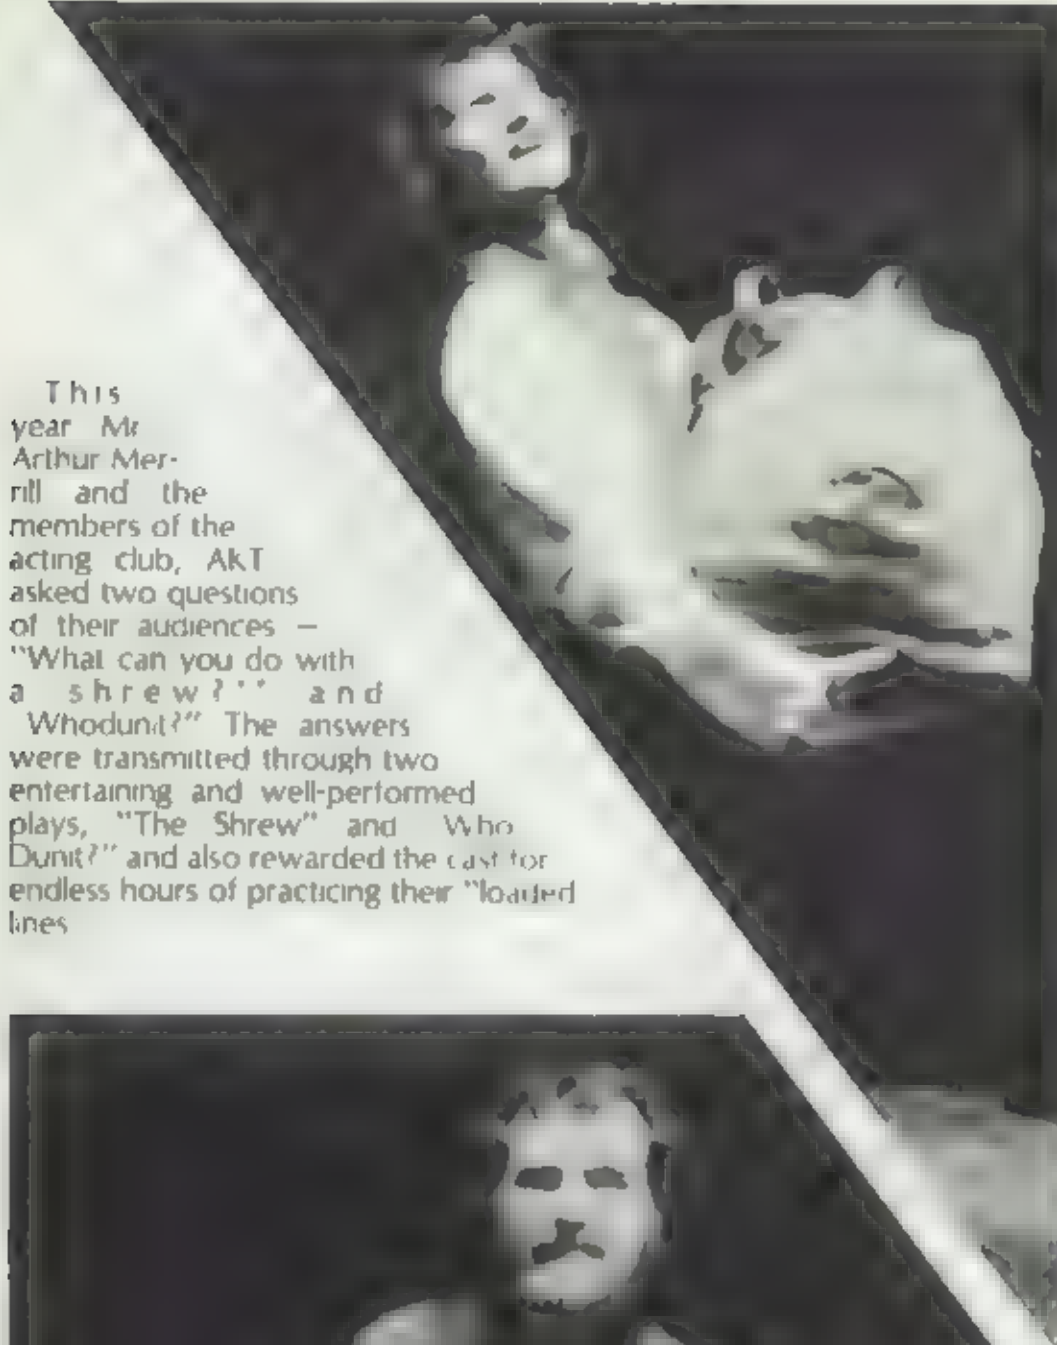

Where I go - It won't leave this house

Our cat's gonna be a vet

This year Mr. Arthur Merrill and the members of the acting club, AKT asked two questions of their audiences — "What can you do with a shrew?" and "Whodunit?" The answers were transmitted through two entertaining and well-performed plays, "The Shrew" and "Who Dunit?" and also rewarded the cast for endless hours of practicing their "loaded lines"

Oh God! What a very good rap!

Can I have a cookie?

GOAL!!!

Cosmos - Na Youth High 5 seniors!

Row 1: J. Allen, C. Stettin, J. O'Jonne, D. Butterfield. Row 2: S. Hart, A. Carayannis, V. Greene, K. Potter, M. Beck, J. Popin, S. Butterfield, J. M. Ploot, R. Potter, J. Potter, J. Potter. Row 3: Coach Larry Smith, B. Poole, T. Gleason, M. Lapoint, M. Armstrong, J. Porter, J. Borovsky, J. Clough, B. Hayes, S. Washburn, J. Perillat, J. Davis, B. Havens, A. Munger.

This year's soccer team, doing an 18-2-2 record, whaled to South High's most successful boot season ever. Led by the "illustrious" Coach Larry Smith, the Bulldogs cleaned up the Foothills circuit with an undefeated season. With 11 returning seniors, South High sported an incomparable team. The Bulldogs rang through the sectional tournament, capturing both the Section II A and AA titles. A precedent in Bulldog soccer, the advancement to regional play, was short circuited after a first round win over Northeast Clinton by the highly talented New York City team, Goshen.

The 1980 booters were well represented on the Foothill Council All-Star team. First team selections were S. Butterfield, J. Davis, B. Havens, B. Hayes, D. Perillat, R. Potter, and S. Washburn, while T. Gleason and D. Clough received second team honors.

The 1981 season should be another banner year for South High, with the help of 11 returning lettermen and some promising JV talent.

The Varsity Football Team toned up this year and received a well-deserved Foothills Council Championship. It was the first championship in 25 years for South High. The 2-0 win over Clowersville sparked the Bulldogs' play.

The Bulldog defense was excellent this year. They gave up a measly 62 points all season, the best in the league. The staunch defense recorded 5 shutouts in eight games, three of which came in their last three games. The defense was spearheaded by All-Capital District defensive end Bob Vishneowski, who led the team in tackles. Other strong performers were Mark Armstrong and Mike Allen.

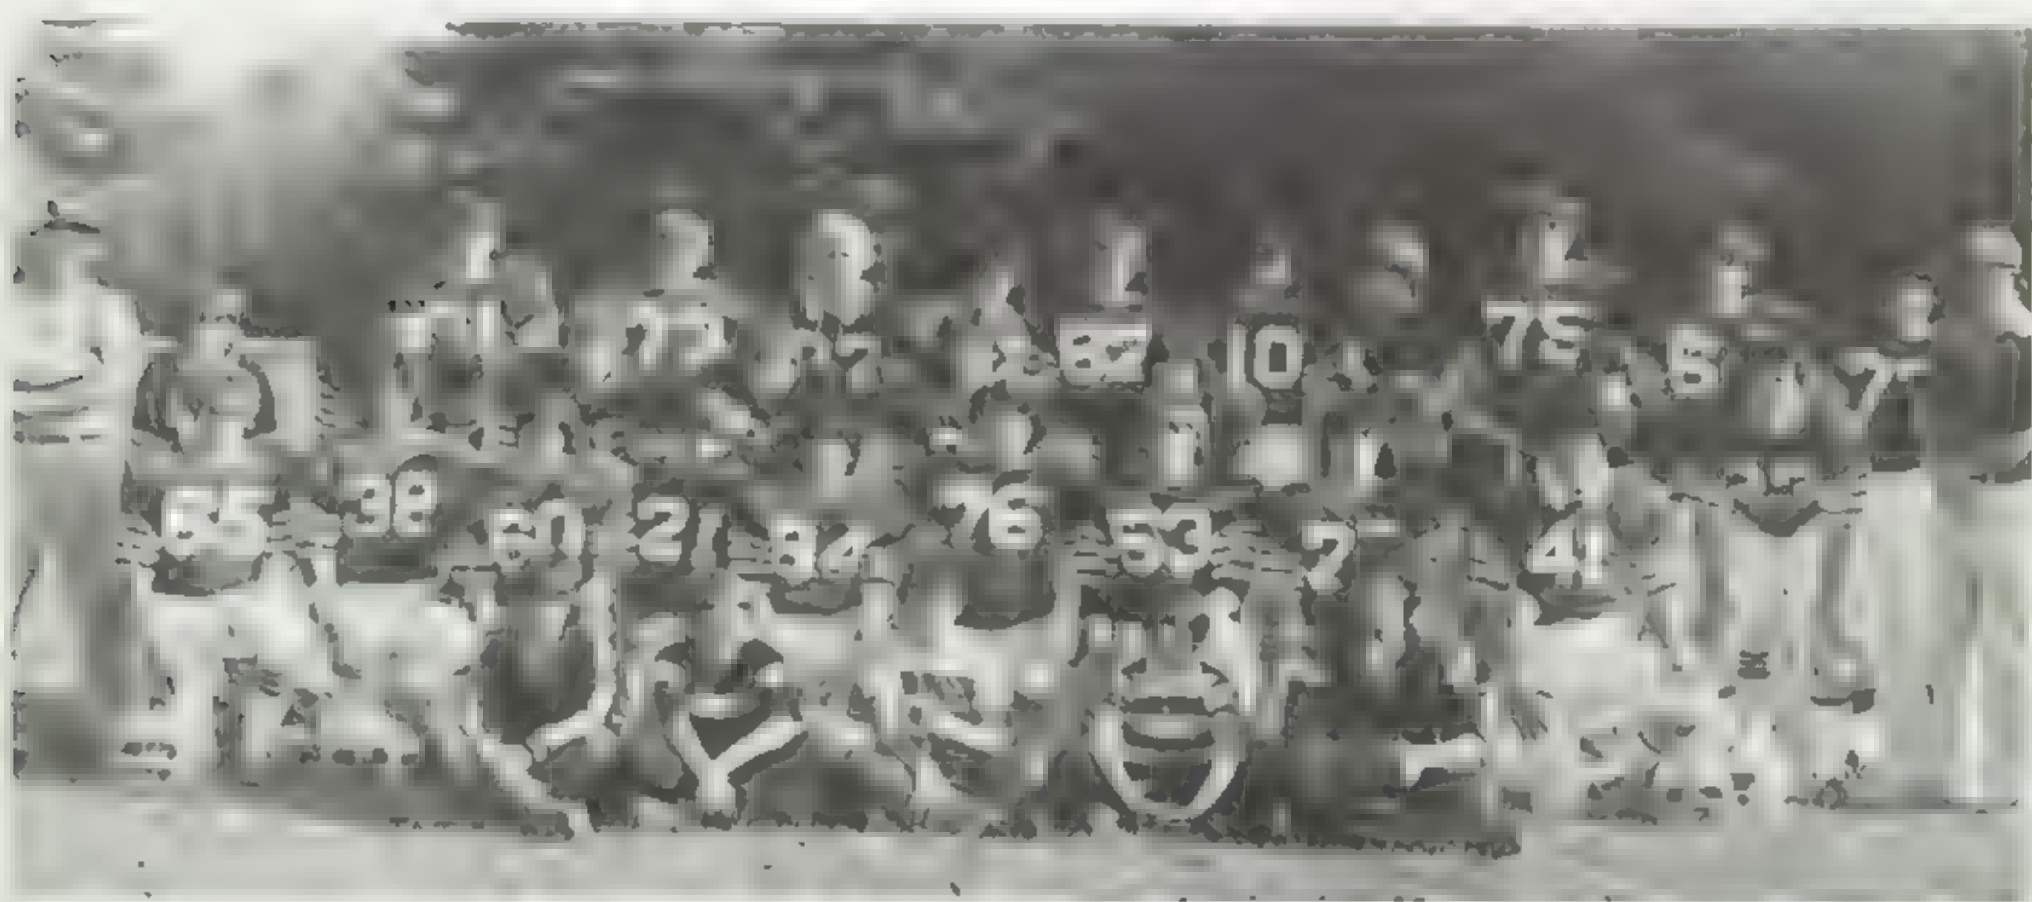

The Bulldogs' success was a total team effort, however. The defense stopped the opponents and the offense scored the points. The offense scored fewer than 20 points a game on only two occasions. Jeff Powers had an outstanding year, throwing for over 900 yards and 12 touchdowns. Mark Armstrong was another player to have an excellent season, rushing for over 500 yards. For receivers, Powers had Bob Vishneowski and Chris Langworthy. Langworthy led the team in receptions and in yards receiving with nearly 500 yards. Much of the success of the offensive unit goes to the offensive line, who opened the holes for the backs.

The 1980 season was an emotionally charged one for the Bulldogs. It was a year for every member of the team and all the fans to look back on and take pride in. Congratulations Bulldogs!

The 1980 FIELD HOCKEY TEAM rang up a 7-5 record for second place in the Foothills Council. They advanced to Sectionals at Bethlehem Central but lost a well played game 1-0. Senior Michele Washburn tended the goal. Senior Cathy Sassone and Junior Mary Donahue were named to the First team All-Stars and senior Kim Ross was named to the second team. Congratulations Bulldogs.

The 1980 Golf Team had many new and inexperienced members. The Record was 0-8. Improvement by the team will have to be put on hold until next year. They had some bright spots however. They lost to Johnstown by 7 and 16 strokes which were impressive showings.

Coach Jenkins, J. Palmer, T. Kelly, M. Lane, K. Kennedy, R. Jenkins, J. Brennan, J. Helman, B. Jenkins, C. Jones, B. Munger, C. Randal, P. Brown, J. Corcoran, B. Sherman

The South High Cross Country team had a respectable 1980 season posting a 3-6 overall record and 1-5 in the Foothills Council. Mark Lane was our top runner, taking first in six meets, 4th in the Foothills and 6th in the sectionals. John Brennan also had a good season coming in the top five in every meet. Returning veterans Tom Kelly, Pete Brown and Chuch Randal, as well as our outstanding rookies Bob Munger, John Corcoran and Brad Jenkins provided depth to the squad. The team rang in respectably all season.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jeanne Steffen the South High cheerleaders made some excellent connections between school spirit and sports. They created numerous posters decorating our school and showing support of our teams. Their voices resounded at Basketball, soccer, and football games, showing our competitors the spirit that South High possesses.

BOYS BASKETBALL

This year's basketball team dialed in for a Foothills Council Championship with a 19-1 record. Communicating with the rest of the team, Bob Vishneowski connected with the net to lead the team scoring. Tom White, Jeff Helwig, Rick Potter, Dave Clough, Randy Smith and Mark Armstrong transmitted the ball for some dazzling team play. Pat Hart, Todd Grace, Vince Green, Bob Graves and Tom Vishneowski rounded out the team to ring in their first place number

The 1980 Volleyball Team clicked for an outstanding season, finishing with an 11 and 1 record, and humming along to a Sectional title win at Saratoga. They defeated rival Hudson Falls in the finals.

Cathy Sassone, Donna Nichols and Kate Kusnierz, all seniors, were named to the Foothills Council All-Star team. Junior Mary Donohue and Senior Debbie Corrie rang up a spot on the second team.

The 1980 TENNIS TEAM dialed the right number by capturing the Foothills and going undefeated. This year marked the sixth consecutive year the Bulldogs have won the Foothills Council. South High also captured the Class A, Section II championship for the first time in the school history, by defeating Niskayuna. In addition, the Bulldogs won the Foothills tournament.

The 1980 Wrestling team rang in one of its best years in Coach Harland's thirteen-year career. They dialed out the right number to overcome the eleven year jinx and beat Queensbury by a score of 38-34. The team was hampered this year by numerous injuries but kept coming up with the right numbers to place second in Foothills Council behind Ballston Spa.

The two captains of this year's team, Steve Butterfield and Howie Weller, along with Dennise Ide will be hanging up their uniforms for the last time. Howie Weller suffered an injury to end his season early, while Butterfield connected as the Class B Champion at 132.

The 1980 Varsity Baseball team, under the direction of first year operator, Robert Bodgan, had a fine season despite finishing 5-7 in league play. Led by tri-captains B. Cook, P. Dufford, and J. Sipowicz the Bulldogs rang up a respectable record of 11-8 overall.

Scott Chamberlain, who led the team with a ringing .314 batting average and Mike Steele, an all around utility man, were selected to the Foothills Council All Star team.

The 1980 Varsity Softball Team really made a successful connection when they won the Foothills Council Championship with a 12-1 overall record under the direction of Coach Jim Clough. This was Mr. Clough's first coaching effort and the team went to Sectionals at Shaker High, but lost in a well played game against Averil Park 5-7.

Seniors on the team include Cathy Sassone, who was the team's mainline in pitching, Jane Potter, Donna Nichols, Michele Washburn, Kim and Karen Ross, Debbie Gorrie and Lisa Healy.

BOYS TRACK

The Boy's Track Team hit a wrong number as they struggled to a 0-5-1 league record. However, there were some bright tones to the season. The team finished second at the Mt. Anthony Quadrangle and had a third place finish at the Cranville Invitational. There were also several outstanding individual achievements in the sectionals. Dick White took first place in the shot put, Tim Carota was third in the discus and Jeff Ball was fifth in the 400 yard dash. Leading scorers were T. Grace, 89 and J. Ball 81.

The 1980 Girl's Track Team was hung up by inexperience. With many new faces they struggled to a 2-10 overall record. Leading point getters were Kathy Kennedy with 54 points and Karen Brownell with 40. One of the highlights of the season was the qualifying of both the 400 meter and 800 meter relay teams in the Section II run offs.

A Message to Seniors in the Class of 1981

- A time to Think
- A time to Play
- A time to Cheer
- A time to Complain
- A time to Stand Together
- A time to Grow

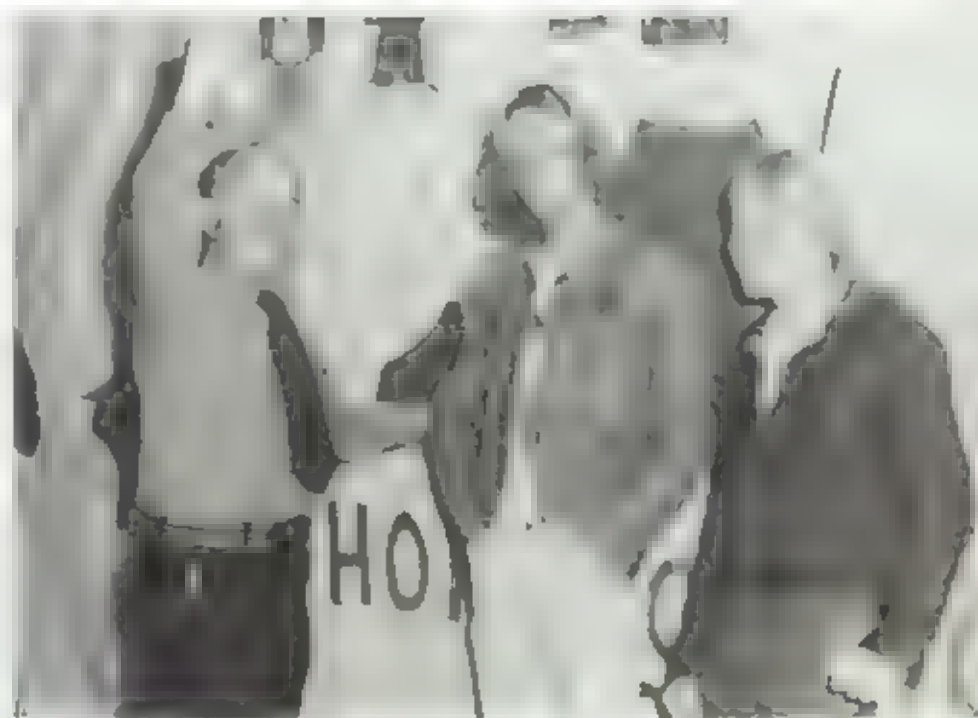

These are but a few of the actions which you, as a graduating Senior have had the opportunity to go through these past twelve years. To some, the experiences have been painful. To others, the years will be looked upon as going too quickly. Whatever your experience, may I join all faculty, parents and fellow students in wishing you all of the happiness one can have.

In a world of turmoil, you and your classmates have given hope for the future. Your kindness will not be forgotten. Best of luck in the future and always reserve a place in your heart for South High.

Sincerely yours

Clarence L. Pelkie

"Is your dial tone in tune?" If not, contact Mr. Shevy, Mr. Lyke or Mrs. Buchman of the Music Department for the correct wiring. Just about every instrument between band and orchestra is taught at South High. These two groups put on concerts in the spring and winter. The Music Department allows students who possess various musical tones to express their feelings in a constructive manner.

Mayola Pattison, in charge of our overseas department, helps with the dialing of long distance numbers. The foreign numbers produced here help to make static free connections throughout the world, and allow the students to expand in other areas. Foreign language is seen as a major line to be followed in the future.

Mrs. Hunter, the connection tying our business department together, sees many new numbers ringing in the horizon. Starting in the fall of 1982 with the freshman, our business department will see major revisions. This will be due to the state Education Department and its survey of 2700 businesses. The changes based on the survey will include bringing up to date and revising present courses, adding new courses, and the addition of two state tests.

The Art Department, under head operator Bill McCarthy, offers such numbers as art studio, creative crafts, pottery, drawing and painting, independent study, and advanced courses. McCarthy sees print making as the future connection for his department. This would involve doing everything a potter does and would demand a high quality of work. Creative numbers are the only thing dialed here.

Good Luck

Cindy -

It's about time we decided to sign these yearbooks, huh? Well, I delayed because I was thinking about what I was going to say. Now, what can I say? You know something? I'm very confused. Why? I don't really know. It's just that there are so many hang-ups everyone has them. Why me, though? You know my major one, without mentioning any names. Well, it's just that she lives so far away - I try, well, I've tried to love her, and I did - ONCE. But, lately, it's been really hard. I've wanted to call and say "Hey, let's be friends." But, Cindy, I honestly feel that I'd get a call the next day saying "She's had a stroke." Seriously, though, I know she'd be crushed. I don't want to hurt anyone. I don't mean to hurt you, Cindy. I care about you very much. I know you feel a lot more for me than "friends." But then again, we're hardly your typical "friends." True? Think about it - we've done everything but the magic thing - ROMANCE (as most spell it - SEX). Cindy, maybe someday I'll feel differently but I could not picture myself, right now - ALL OVER you, or something like that. Can you? We're just not used to that. I can't really explain it, but that's how I feel, OK? Our relationship to me is great! Cindy, if we were going out, I know a lot of things would be different. For one I know we wouldn't make each other laugh as much as we do now. We probably would think we were too grown up for that. You know what I mean? We'd be too busy for telling jokes and cheering each other up. Cindy, you're my best companion. We've stuck through more problems and came through like sunshine (pardon the pun). I bet you think if we were "going out" we could still talk to one another like we do now! You see, I don't want to lose that quality of you. You listen to me so freely. I love you for that. Because for one thing, what would we talk about? Certainly not Laura - she'd be out of the picture, RIGHT? Bear with me - I'm stubborn, but Cindy I need time to think things ahead (again, pardon that nasty pun). OK?

Now, future, present, or past? Which should I delve into? OK - PAST - Stoughton (Roy, Special Olympics); SPAC (JT, Renaissance Doobies) CIVIC CENTER (Beach Boys, Frampton, Cheap Trick - "yes, I'm awake"). 30, 26, 16, etc.; y'arschoch; who's ya up to?; A-A-A-4444; B-E-A-S; SCRATCH YA; punkspert; C-Rite

Hey Baby, whats going on?

Can you believe we are finally out of here, Yeh!! I want to thank you for all off those times I left during lunch with you to McD's.
Boy, it sure beats the cafeteria lunch!!

You're one terrific + wild girl,
